

Danielle Hagan

Grad year: SPA 2002

Danielle Hagan spent her first summer with SPA when she was in the 2nd grade and never missed a year all the way through high school. Some of her favorite roles include Mazie in The Boyfriend and Glinda in The Wiz. After graduating from RRHS, Danielle attended the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in NYC. She continued to return home in the summers to teach dance and guest direct for SPA. After AMDA, she danced professionally for Celebrity Cruise Line where she got to travel the world, work-shopped a new Off Broadway musical called LBS: The Musical With Weight Behind It, amongst other projects. Soon her dreams grew from the stage to the silver screen so she moved from NYC to Los Angeles where she has found success with films such as Purge and True Perfection. She also continues with her music career as a singer/songwriter, performing regularly at local Hollywood music venues and music festivals.

“After high school I took a leap to NYC, I thought that with such a big school, I’ll probably be at the bottom of the talent barrel. But with the training I received back home from programs like SPA, I had built a foundation that made me the competition for the other students and I quickly made my way to graduating at the top.”
