HOT DOG THEATRE

At last something for the family--a family show and a family picnic at an affordable family price.

The 3rd annual Jr. High Theatre Company has gone outdoors to escape the heat. They've also joined forces with Burger King to present an outdoor Hot Dog Theatre production. The show is Magic Theatre. It was developed by South Coast Repertory, Costa Mesa, California and incorporates six months of intensive research with children and child psychologists. Magic Theatre is highly imaginative and presents a series of relevant topics in a creative and sensitive manner. The topics range from death to friendship and from noise to anger.

The show takes about 45 minutes and you can eat hot dogs and chips while you watch the show. Its just the kind of evening you can enjoy with your children. It is not just a childrens' show. Any age will enjoy it.

The performance will be held under the awning at Red River High School (facing 17th Avenue). There are two casts and each cast will present their version of the script so that it is possible to see the show twice if you want.

The price of the ticket includes the Burger King supper. Tickets will be available at the door or from cast members.
